Tiya ntira mura
buru sîri dîri.
